Dunham was a puzzle to the Red batters and in the eight innings in which he officiated they were unable to gauge him. The Senators won by a score of 7 to 5.

SECOND DEFEAT FOR COLONELS

Cardinals Gathered Fifteen Scores to Louisville's Six-Hazleton Made a Sensational Catch.

To a ball player the good will of the popu lace is a valuable asset, and there is at least one member of the tribe of Donovan who has literally sprinted his way into the big hearts of the bleachers. He is George Barclay, and his great speed exhibition in the eighth inning of the game with Louisville brought some three hundred of the sun gods to their feet with a riotous tumult of ap-

Of course, there wasn't any particular necessity for a home run at that stage of the game, as the Cardinals' score cast a big ow on the Kentucky side, but "Deer foot" had evidently been waiting for just such an opportunity. The hit wasn't so much-in fact, if it had been fathered by Bill Schriver it is doubtful whether the ex-Cardinal would have reached the second bar on it-but the way that Barchiy clove the atmosphere around the bases created a Section clear around the circuit, and the Sected atmosphere didn't close in on the gap until he slid in at the plate in a cloud of Farrell was on base when it happened. With the crack of the bat he was off like a shot and, though pretty speedy, he had to leg it to keep harclay from running him lown. The ball fell out just beyond Clymer in center field. By the time it kissed the turf Barclay had already covered the ninety feet to first and he galloped bareheaded around the bases like a racehorse. So good an authority as E. Lincoln Boole declares that he touched ground enly nine time during the entire circuit. Cylmer's throw was acquirate and it came in just about the same time as Barclay. He tieked up the dust with a headlong slide and located the plate just as Spies put the ball on him. Umpire Jack Ryan called him safe, though if was a close decision.

The trihe of Tebeau was forced to swallow another pill of defeat and a decisive ene at that, but for the first five innings it was a tight struggle, the score being tied whoe. The Tebeaulites used two of their hest twiflers. Kerwin and Hoger Denzer, the ex-Glant. The locals donned their swalting robes and uncorked fourteen hits at the expense of this pair, the heaviest Stick work being done by the first four men on the batting list.

In the field the work of both teams was far from perfect. Lee Tannehill, a brother M Jesse Tannehill, the Pittsburg twirler. Dined the Colonels yesterday and replaced Lanny Coogan at short. He had some diffeulty in handling the hot shot, which the Cardinal batterler directed toward him.

Sur Robert Wicker and his corkscrew delivery were on the firing line for the locals, Mobols domining the windpad and mask, Str hits, all singles was the extent of the damage done to him by Clymer's men, though five of the rune were made while he was in the box. Energetic Stick Work.

The game savored more of the spectacular than any in which the Cardinals have parlicipated so far. It was a hit and rungame on the part of the Donovanites. The same they expended in loud talk, and John Sannel was unanimously awarded the plum Genzel's batting average in the game of words was about 299. Farrell, Barclay and Hartman, the leading trio on the batting lest each made an error, but carried off the honors for hits and runs. Farrell singled thrice and brought in two of the tons. Barclay was responsible for three times up, secured two safeties and a safey. Bashear registered twice at the plate, and got two marks in the hit column, neturing a double. Out of three trips to the date Smoot connected once for two bases. Hasteton bagged two safe hits, but no runs. Both sides had a number of stolen bases and sacrifice hits to their credit. and do not supplying for a position on the National League umpiring staff. IMP TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION. Death of Owner of "Famous Black Mare" Necessitates the Sale.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Chicago, Ill., April 11.—Imp., the famous black race mare, is to be sold at public auc-tion within a month or two. This announcement was made to-day by C. E. Brossman, the trainer, who had charge of Imp when she made such a record for herself, and which still stands unequaled by any thoroughbred of her sex.

The death of Dan Horness, the mare's owner, and the settlement of his estate makes the sale necessary.

LARGEST COLT ON RECORD. Dr. Hasbrouck-Sweet Clover Young ster Measures 43 Inches in Height.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Lexington, Ky., April 11.-William Bar-Iexington. Ky., April 11.—William Barrett, the noted trainer, is the owner of the largest throughbred colt ever dropped in Kentucky. The youngster, which arrived at Caveland stud to-day, is by Doctor Hashrouck and out of Sweet Clover, by Hanover, dam Clover, by Milner. It measures 43 Inches in height.

Bonnie Gal, the dam of Disguise, foaled last night at the Castleton Farm of James R, and F. P. Keene, a brown filly by Kingston. Not only is the youngster a haif-rister to the winner of the Jockey Club $50,000 stake, but also to the good race mare Princess Florida.

THREATENS TO SUE TOMMY RYAN. Doctor Ordway Says Fight With O'Brien Is Against Contract. Kansas City, Mo., April 11.—Tommy Ryan has received a telegram from Doctor Ord-

American representative of the National Sporting Club of London, stating that if he insists on meeting Jack O'Brien at Louisville, May 3, he (Ordway) would commence legal proceedings at once to prevent the fight, as it was a violation of Ryan's contract with the English club.

Ryan admits that his contract with the National Sporting Club to meet Jack Gorman specifies that he must not meet O'Brien before his engagement in England, and he says that when he signed articles to meet O'Brien in Louisville he was told by the club's manager that the Southern Club would square matters with Doctor Ordway. tional Sporting Club of London, stating that ATHLETIC MEET IS CALLED OFF. Intercollegiate Games Not Sufficiently Susceensful Financially.

Chicago, April 11.-No athletic meet of Chicago, April II.—No athletic meet of the Western Intercollegiate Athletic Association will be held this year. This announcement was made to-day by Wendell Huston, who was in charge of the meet last year. The meet was successful from an athletic standpoint, but lost money. The smaller colleges participated, having split from the big ones.

It is probable that the smaller institutions will apply for admittance to the big college conference association meet, to be held on Marshall Fleid, May 31. The conference recently passed a respiration announcing that minor schools having athletes worthy of competing with the best men in the West would be admitted.

CRACK GREYHOUNDS WILL MEET. Warburton, Disquoe, Laughing Water and Others Entered in Stake. Owners of greyhounds succeeded in getting up a cracking good stake for to-mor-row's meeting at De Hodiamont Park. The Owner's Stake, twelve dogs each at $5, with the very handsome sum of $115 added by the club, will bring out Slaquoc, Mr. Orthwein's recently imported California crack, Mr. Crawford's great pair, Warburton and Laughing Water; Mr. Bheridan's improving Kingstown, Mr. Menown's fast rascal, Mystic Faker; Mr. Deschaseaux's speedy, but utterly unreliable, Mountain Chief, and Mr. Bratton's old stand-by, Count Crowley, Mr. Orthwein has four of the twelve dogs in, and Mr. Crawford has three of the remaining eight. Thus the big owners have it a good deal to themselves.

Picking a winner in this stake is hard work, indeed. The hares will, likely enough, run weakly. In such eventuality, Warburton should win. He is bound to be good and fresh, and if improved, as he should be, tought to be his mutton. He has the speed and the cleverness and the hares will scarce test his gameness.

On his California reputation and performances, Bisquoc is a clinch to run up. When he gets through with Laughing Water he will know he has been to a coursing match. Owner's Stake, twelve dogs each at $5, with

TENNESSEE WAR VETERANS.

Local Camp Has Withdrawn and Passed Spicy Resolutions.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Clarksville, Tenn., April II.—The William Crawford Smith Camp of Spanish-American War Veterans have withdrawn from the national order and formed a local club. Upon withdrawing spicy resolutions were passed, alleging that Adjutant General Liller inserted without authority into the constitution certain sections requiring camps to buy articles not essential for them and which are manufactured by said Liller and sold by him for his own profit. It is further alleged that, although the commander-in-nief admitted the charge, no court-martial was held to try Liller.

The local camp demands a revocation of its charter and discharge from the national organization of the members here. This camp is composed of members of the former First Tennessee, who served in the Phillippiner. ler inserted without authority into the con-
